BREED THEATRE.

Pearl White heads the bill at the Breed heatre today and tomorrow in her latest icture. Any Wife.

The mory of Any Wife is one that carries a potent appeal for every woman, whether wife or maid, and it should ap-peal strongly to every husband. On the woman's aide it deals with the peril attending chronic discontent in a wife who though possessed of a loving husband and provided with every material com-fort finds her life too "slew" - acking a measure of excitement which she craves. On the husband's side it deals with the peril attending an absorption in business so great as to blind him to a woman's natural domand for a larger measure of personal attention and social activity. The role of the discontented wife is one that should present Fearl White most favorably.

Ann Little will also be seen in The Blue Box, and the Pathe news and an Educational comedy will complete the bill. Continuous show Saturday from 1.30 to 10.15 p. m.

From the point of applause, "Cheyko"," a talented Japanese performer, scored about 100 per cent, last night, presenting some marvelous juggling and acrobatic stunts that have neved been surpassed. Berry and Nickerson scored high in a musical act, replete with comedy. Their imitation of a Scotch baggine took e audience by storm. Warden and Mack, ninth act on the blil, are two clever comedians who may antly be called "big time" artists. It was a laugh from start to finish.

Dances de luxe. Newkirk and the Fayne sisters concluded the vandeville bill, in a singing and dancing act of marked skill. While Newburgh has witnessed many expert presentations of the terpatchorean art the technique of these artists stands naramount. Gorgeous cos-tumes, won terful softlaga, molerated volces, dainty little cances are the features of this compelling act.
